

Who Translated The Ekklesia Bible?

Teresa Rostek Ask Who Translated The Ekklesia Bible?

In the English, The Ekklesia Bible is translated similar in part like all other English Bible translation. The First English Bible translation is made by John Wycliffe first in the English Bible translation by a member of the Catholic church. The Wycliffe Bible translation that was made first for members of the Catholic church.

All English translated Bibles have their roots in the first English translated Bible called the Wycliffe Bible. The Wycliffe Bible today sets the standard in doctrine in most all the more popular Bible translations made first for Catholics by leaders of the Catholic church. The first Catholic Wycliffe Bible translation sets the standard for all the most popular translated Bibles made first in the English -Except the Ekklesia Bible translation does not use names and words of blasphemy found in the Wycliffe Bible or in all the most popular Bible translations. Today all the more popular Bible translations still copy the Wycliffe Bible translations that still promote pagan worship made first by the Catholic church.

Examples of names and words of blasphemy found written in the most popular English Bible translations is the words, “church,” “Jesus,” “Week,” “Month,” “Baptize,” “Peter,” Sunday, Easter and a world of other names and words of blasphemy made with the purpose to deceive the Saints.

Revelation { 17:3 } And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman riding upon a scarlet-colored beast [of her religion] that [beast of a religion] was [fed to the belly of her as a beast of a religion. Fed into the belly of her religion or is fed to the] full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. [Amplifying in brackets is mine.]

Take note, The Wycliffe Bible a false Bible translation is a Bible translation that is fed to the full of names of blasphemy. The Wycliffe Bible is a Bible translation made only from the Catholic Catechism and the Latin Vulgate and the Wycliffe Bible made for members of the Catholic church is not a Bible translation from any ancient Bible manuscript.

How do we know the first Catholic translation of the Wycliffe Bible to this day sets the standard for Doctrine for all the most popular Bible translations? All the most popular bible translations have the same words and names of blasphemy that was mistranslated first into the Wycliffe Bible translation.

The Latin Vulgate is a Catholic Bible translation made in 382 CE. The Latin Vulgate is a Bible translation made by Jerome for Pope Damasus and for all the Catholic church members. Only Pope Damsons determines what words and names for doctrine (dogma) (Instructions from God) are to be translated in the Latin Vulgate for all Catholics. No word or name is to be translated in the Latin Vulgate that will contradict any false pagan worship that is being made by the Catholic church. The true translated word for the command of God for the Saints to be immersed in water to be saved the Greek word “Baptizo” Pope Damasus would not allow to be translated as “Immerse” the Latin name “immergere” but the pope did allow the Greek word “ See Strong’s Greek word number 907 βαπτίζω baptizo bap-tid -zo to be transliterated in the Latin as “ baptizetur.”

Literally Thousands upon thousands of spelling and grammar changes have been made in the Ekklesia Bible translation from The first Wycliffe Bible translation. The adding of the apparatus of the Ekklesia Bible translation to make easy search, display and read out loud is an enormous undertaking being made by the Ekklesia Bible project.

This Ekklesia Bible translation totally separates from the false pagan doctrine (instructions making the claim to be from God) set by the Catholic Church for pagan worship made by Catholic church leaders for their Catholic members in the Wycliffe Bible translation.

This Ekklesia Bible project is the only Bible translation in the English that has set out to remove from this Ekklesia Bible translation, names of blasphemy that are mistranslated first into the Wycliffe Bible and copied by all the most popular Bible translations. Names and words of “blasphemy” borrowed from the Catholic Catechism and the Latin Vulgate are still being mistranslated in all the most popular Bible translations.

Names of Blasphemy are false translated names and word that promote the Catholic Religion and is false names that are borrowed directly and only from the Catholic Catechism and the Latin Vulgate.

The Ekklesia Bible translation is the only open for dispute Bible translation in the entire world (that we know of). No one person translates the Ekklesia Bible. So far we believe thousands of people have contributed to this Ekklesia Bible translation. The Ekklesia Bible translation project was started some fifty years before the Ekklesia begin to be written down by members of the Ekklesia in about 1985 as a living entity. The goal of the Ekklesia Bible translation project is to remove from other Bible translations all names and words of blasphemy and to become the most perfected and trusted Bible translation in the entire world, The final edition of the Ekklesia Bible Translated is confirmed only by the majority of the entire body of the Ekklesia of Christ.

All disputes about this Bible translation is first deliberated before the entire Ekklesia. Only The active proven to be members of the entire Ekklesia are allowed the final vote to determine instructions for their most precious eternal life what is to be translated into this final edition of the Ekklesia Bible translation.

All caution and preventive measures are made to make certain for their salvation only truth in doctrine (Instructions from God) is correctly translated into the Ekklesia Bible translation.

All members of this web site regardless if your are or if your are not a member of the Ekklesia of Christ, all members of this site are allowed to make dispute and deliberate for or against any Ekklesia Bible translation. The Ekklesia Bible translation has nothing to hide so we open this Bible translation for any important dispute for polemic debate.

Ekklesia is designed by God to be open for dispute by anyone. If the Ekklesia Bible has any translation that can be proven not to be truth of instruction from God needed to be saved, we want to know what that written instruction from God is found in the ancient languages of the Bible, only if it is not found written in the Ekklesia Bible translation.

All confirmed members of the Ekklesia on this site are allowed to vote for or against any disputed Bible translation.

We invite what none members of the Ekklesia can show or contribute to what truth is from the ancient languages of the Bible.

If you profess to be a Christian and you believe that you will be saved only by what is correctly translated in the Ekklesia Bible, then You would not knowingly;

- 1) let the devil who hates truth and hates all true Bible translations,
- 2) or some one that does not know or care about what truth is that is written as instruction in the ancient languages of the Bible,
- 3) to take part to translate or vote in the final translation of your Bible that makes certain will determine your pleasing your heavenly Father and for your future eternal life.

Matthew { 16:19 } I will give unto you [my Ekklesia] the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and what ever you [my Ekklesia] shall bind on earth is already bound in heaven; and what ever you shall loose on earth shall be what is loosed in heaven.

God established the purpose for Ekklesia in warfare made against the gates of Hell. If God trust His purpose for Ekklesia to make true Bible translations, then the Saints should also trust the established function of Ekklesia to make true Bible translations.
