Praeses Announces a Suite of New Service Offerings for the Corrections Industry

Leading Provider of Consulting and Management in the Inmate Communications

Space Expands into Commissary and Food Services

SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA – January 17, 2018 – Praeses Correctional Services Division (CSD), a national leader in consulting and process management for inmate communications and related technologies, is actively expanding its footprint in correctional services. The new offerings, which align with Praeses’ traditional communications and technology management services, include Request for Proposal (RFP) and contract consulting, vendor management, data reconciliation, validation, and analysis for Commissary and Food Services.

Ann Day, Director of CSD, said, “Over the years, numerous clients have asked us to help them in other service areas using the core services we have provided in inmate communications. Expanding in Commissary and Food Service management and consulting is a natural progression and we hope to achieve ongoing successes as we partner with existing clients and new ones in managing these parallel service areas.”

Praeses has implemented consulting and management for Food and Commissary Services with multiple correctional agencies across the U.S. including Lackawanna County in Pennsylvania. Following successful rollouts of these programs, Praeses is expanding the offerings to state Departments of Corrections, additional county Sheriffs’ Offices and private prison managers.

Praeses’ experience in contract management, vendor procurement and oversight provides its clients with an enhanced RFP process, maximizing cost savings. Further, with ongoing oversight, management and consulting services, the Inmate Communications, Commissary and Food Services environments improve operationally as well as economically.
