

LEADERSHIP BIO

Marjorie Murat

Vice President of Program Services

Marjorie Murat has over 25 years of experience working with nonprofit organizations to build and support high-quality programs. She is driven by the belief that education, including Out-of-School-Time (OST), is crucial to solving inequity, and is passionate about educating people of all ages that their circumstances do not define them. Prior to joining Dallas Afterschool, Marjorie worked with Big Brothers Big Sisters Lone Star, The Salvation Army, and Jubilee Park & Community Center.

Marjorie holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from State University of New York College at Cortland, a Master of Arts in Counseling from Amberton University, and a Non-Profit Leadership Certificate from Southern Methodist University (SMU). She is also a Leadership ISD Alumni (Dallas, 2017) as well as a Licensed Child Care Director through the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS).
