- The application form must be signed by a representative of your school/university. It can be your college dean, office of student affairs, adviser, professor etc..

- What are the questions that will be asked during the competition?

- Questions for the Online Trivia Competition will revolve around general facts about the European Union (history, trade and development policies and programmes), EU-Philippines relations, current events (COVID 19, Green Deal, Circular Economy), EU Values, as well as EU and EU Member States' pop culture and trends (ex. sports, cuisine, celebrities). References for the competition can be found online and will also be posted weekly on the European Union Delegation in the Philippines' official Facebook page.

- What platform will be used for the competition?

- The actual competition will be held via Zoom, while the EU Whiz Trivia will be conducted through the Kahoot mobile application.

- What is the quiz format?

- The quiz will be in the form of multiple choice. Teams will be given 20 seconds to give in their answers.

- What do my teammates and I need during the competition proper?

- Since the competition will be held online, participants are required to have a stable internet connection, a laptop/desktop with audio and camera functionalities and a smartphone that can connect to WiFi or internet network.

Digital Art and Video Competition

- I already applied for the Digital Art/Video Competition, can I still apply as an individual participant?

- No. Participants who already applied and submitted their entry for the Digital Art or Video competition can no longer apply as an individual or with another group for the said competitions as the purpose of the updated mechanics is to expand or provide opportunities to interested participants who cannot find teammates within their respective school, college or university.

- Can I join individually?
 - Yes. Individual submissions will be accepted for the The Digital Art and Video Competition as well as groups that have two (2) members only.

- Can our team be composed of students from different schools, universities or colleges?
 - Yes. As long as the members of your group are aged 18 to 25 years old who are enrolled in the current school year.

- What are the requirements do I/my team need to submit?
 - Participants/teams should submit the following:
 - Accomplished application form
 - School ID or any proof of enrollment
 - Copy of birth certificate.

- Can I/we submit our original artworks that have already won in other competition (s)?
 - No. Some competitions require artists to transfer some level of ownership of the artwork to the project proponents. To avoid any legal issues for your team, artworks previously entered in other competitions will not be accepted.

- Can I commission someone to do my artwork?
 - Using the work of others is strictly prohibited. Teams will be required to attest that the artworks that they will submit as official competition entries do not violate any copyright or ownership.

- What happens if my entry fails to meet any of the requirements/specifications stated on the competition mechanics?
 - All entries/applications will be screened and evaluated by the secretariat team before handing over to the judges. Failure to comply on any of the specifications/requirements may affect the final score of the entry.

- How will the entries be judged? Who will judge the entries?

- After passing the initial screening process, the competition secretariat will endorse the qualified entries to the panel of judges who will then evaluate each entry guided by the criteria outlined in the mechanics. Qualified entries will be judged by industry leaders and practitioners. The composition of the judging panel will be announced on the European Union Delegation in the Philippines Facebook page.
- Will the ownership of my artwork/video material be transferred when I submit it as an entry?
 - No, the ownership of the submitted material will not be transferred to the European Union Delegation in the Philippines or the competition secretariat. But submitting the material as an entry to the competition will allow the European Union Delegation in the Philippines and competition organizers to publish them online with full acknowledgement and credit to the team members and their respective schools.
