

SELF (Strengthening Early Learning for Families)

Term 3, July, August, September, 2019

SELF is a seven-week early intervention therapy program. It is designed for parents of young children up to the age of 5 years, who have difficulties with interacting, playing and communicating. This includes children with autism and other developmental delays. SELF provides a really effective way for parents to be supported to understand their child's unique strengths and challenges and to learn ways through play and their interactive relationship with their child to help them make gains. SELF has had a 100% high recommendation rating for the parents who have participated to date.

What is the SELF program?

- ✚ This program uses an evidence based approach which is developmentally and relationship focused.
- ✚ It is for parents of children who have difficulty interacting, playing and communicating.
- ✚ The program is held for 7 weeks – 1 session per week
- ✚ It is facilitated by a specialist early intervention Occupational therapist and Speech and language Pathologist who work together to help parents gain a holistic understanding of their child.
- ✚ It is a combination of parent training and individual parent-child sessions.
- ✚ Parents will be 'coached' to play and interact through direct feedback and confidential video recording.
- ✚ There will also be roundtable discussion and sharing with other parents attending the program.

The following questions will be addressed:

- ✚ What kind of play promotes my child's attention and interaction?
- ✚ How can I get my child to play with me – not just on his/her own?
- ✚ How can I 'read' my child's attempts to communicate?
- ✚ How do I keep interaction and communication going - and growing?
- ✚ What developmental skills should be focused on for my child.?

Venue: All sessions are conducted at Sensory Connections– 104 Keightley Road West, Shenton Park

Application Process:

- ✚ There is space for five families for each SELF program.
- ✚ Two adult places are available per family.
- ✚ As there is a large investment in this program from therapists and funders there is a need a commitment for attendance to all sessions.

Some Feedback from Parents about SELF

- ✚ Learning a lot about how what I do impacts on my child's ability to show what they can do.
- ✚ I love having both of you (OT and SLP) working so closely together to help me- it feels very supportive.
- ✚ I was initially unsure about the use of video feedback but I learned so much from them, they were incredibly helpful.
- ✚ Having both individual sessions with both therapists and then the session with other parents in the group was invaluable.
- ✚ My child has been showing us how much they can do! The gains from SELF have been great!
- ✚ I feel I have a roadmap now to work from for my child which I didn't have before
