Talents Given. Talents Returned. One more Kingdom of Heaven parable today. God gives in the great hope that these treasures, these talents, these baptismal charisms will bear fruit. God's gifts are not for burying or hiding in safety. They are to be risked, to be used for the benefit of both self and others. When that happens, God says: "Well done. Come share my joy."

- What gifts of God must I unbury and put to use?
- How will I serve God this week by serving another?
- What action will I do that prompts God to say: "Well done"?

DCJH APPEAL

November 21-22 is the annual collection for the Diocesan Campaign for Justice and Hope (DCJH). Donations make it possible to provide hope and assistance of food, clothing, housing, education and medication to local people living in poverty. With 100 % of the contributions staying within our Diocese, our parishioners have helped 15 different organizations to better serve the poor and vulnerable. One of these organizations helped is right here in Pana – the Community Mission Center. With the grant funds received, they were able to make continued improvements to the Intake Room and Basement, as well as lighting. We look forward to another year of generous giving!
