Rental Policy Regulations

General Specifications

- Art Center personnel will be on the premises during the event to protect the interests of the organization, including its exhibited artwork and the respectful use of the building and to answer questions.
- Unless specifically stated in the contract, the Art Center remains open to the public during regular business hours.
- Only those Art Center rooms specified in the contract will be available to patrons or their guests.
- Serving and consumption of alcoholic beverages must comply with state laws and local ordinances. The Art Center will not be held responsible for violations of these laws and ordinances.
- If the renting party is serving alcohol, the renting party must provide a Certificate of Insurance for 2 million dollars listing both the Art Center and the City of Danville as additional insured.
- It is the responsibility of the renting party to communicate these Art Center regulations to all guests or members of the organization and to the personnel of all hired services.
- The user is legally and financially responsible for the theft of or damage to any artifact including but not restricted to the artistic displays and to the building itself, caused by the user, his employees, agents, guests or persons under his control or supervision. If suit must be brought to enforce any provision of this agreement all parties renting agree to pay attorney fees, cost and interest. All physical barriers in the Art Center will be respected.
- All exterior decoration must be preapproved by the Art Center.
- No partisan political signage is permitted outdoors.
- All events must end by midnight.

Prohibitions

- In accordance with the City of Danville laws, smoking is not allowed in any part of the Art Center building.
- Cooking is not allowed inside the building beyond the use of a microwave oven or a catering warming oven.
- Use of smoke machines or any pyrotechnics inside the building is prohibited. The renting party will pay any expenses related to damage of facility, property or artifacts caused by such items.
- No open flames (exception: candles on a birthday cake.)
- NO moving of granite/slate tables.

Payments and Fees

- Fees are charged by the hour for use of specific spaces. Hourly rates begin with setting up for the event and end with breaking down and exiting the premises.
- The date is not reserved until the deposit is received. This deposit is non-refundable.
- Patrons will be charged for replacement or repair of all damage to the building or to any equipment, furnishings or artwork caused by any person participating in, or providing services or goods for the event incurred during the event or during set up and break down maneuvers.
- If an event exceeds the times recorded on the contract, the first hour in excess will be double charged ($160/hr.) and each hour thereafter will be triple charged ($240/hr.).
- If the Art Center is unable to provide the facilities for use because of a reason beyond its control, the Center and user are excused from contract, and the Center will refund all amounts previously paid by the user.

Use of Furnishings, Equipment and Supplies

- Patrons and their service personnel are expected to bring all equipment, furnishings and supplies necessary except where noted otherwise below.
- The Art Center has several utility folding tables and 50 folding chairs that are available for use without charge but must be reserved in advance.
- Any preferred rearranging or removal of the Art Center furnishings must be requested before the event and must be undertaken by Art Center personnel.

Break Down and Clean Up

- In general, all equipment, materials and furnishings brought in for use during the event must be removed within the reserved time period.
- Unless prior arrangements are made, any equipment or furnishings that cannot be removed immediately must be left outside on the loading dock to be removed at the earliest possible time. The Art Center is not responsible for equipment left on the loading dock.
- No janitorial services are provided during the event. Patrons are responsible for cleaning up spills and breakages during the event.
- To help us keep prices low for you, patrons must clear the premises of trash and debris and undertake general straightening before they leave. The Art Center will clean floors and surfaces after the event has ended.
- All trash including flowers, decorations, wrappings and preparation debris must be removed by the patron before the close of the event. Disposable plates, cups, glasses and utensils left from food consumption should be disposed of in trash/garbage receptacles outdoors.
- Every renting party must do a walk through at the end of the event with Art Center staff and sign off on the check list. If further damage is discovered, the Art Center will contact the renter as soon as possible.

Other

- The user shall hold neither the Art Center or the Art Center Board of Directors nor its employees or volunteers responsible or accountable for any accidents, damages, including but not restricted to consequential damages, injuries, thefts or acts of vandalism which may occur before, during or after the event.
- It is understood that the renting party's program content and its guest list are specifically those of the renting party. In no way, explicit or implied, should the event be viewed as an endorsement of the Art Center, its staff or its board of directors. The views and opinions of the renter are respected, but may not imply those of the Art Center.
- Unless agreed upon in writing, all use of the Art Center's name or likeness in advertising and promoting this event is strictly as a venue and destination. In no way should the Community Art Center be included in presenting or sponsoring the event unless agreed upon in writing.
- The Art Center is renting its facilities as a community service to continue to bring new constituents into its venue and realize its institutional mission.
