

GEMINI, since its establishment in 1988, has been one of the leading DMCs and PCOs of Turkey. Our major role and mission for all these years have been mainly to provide you with all the necessary services that would help you convey your messages to your guests in the best possible way so that your mission is accomplished and your guests are satisfied the best.

Our major aim is to bring you the quality of service that you have a right to demand for the successful accomplishment of your own goals, being there for you supporting you and delivering what we have promised and more along the entire duration of your stay.

As Gemini, we aim to be your long term partner that will always bring you original ideas, that will simplify the road ahead of you and will try to get you do best deal suited for your needs.

Our reputation for reliability and creativity is not only based on an experienced team of professionals but also on close, long-standing relationships with leading suppliers in destinations all across Turkey. Just one example is Gemini's status as one of the agencies to have booked the most room-nights at international award winning Ciragan Palace Hotel Kempinski for the last 10 years.

Gemini has organized everything from private events to incentives, congresses and even entire festivals for some of world's top companies and associations, not to mention some of Turkey's most exclusive and original corporate programs. Our operation spans the entire nation of Turkey, and we offer you the best in every destination.

Our strength lies in fact on three pillars;

- CREATIVITY
- REACTIVENESS
- COMPETITIVENESS

CREATIVITY

Every travel and event is unique and is constructed around an open-two way communication with our clients according to the desired concepts so that “the event, makes a difference”.

REACTIVITY

We are present all along the way on the ground to bring you organizational comfort and eventually to allow for you to make the last minute changes as well as making happen your unforeseen requests.

COMPETITIVENESS

We proceed step by step in each of the components of every project in order to assure the right quality for the best price. With our specialization in the Japanese market and experience in the field for the two decades since our establishment we have developed a strong reputation for reliability as well as competitiveness also in other markets.
