

Australian Circular Economy Conference

Call for Expressions of Interest for

Graduate Student Poster Session

The 2nd Australian Circular Economy Conference (ACEC) will be partnering with universities and industry leaders in the Asia-Pacific region to discuss, plan and share knowledge on the circular economy. Organised by the Waste Transformation Research Hub, the Sydney Knowledge Hub, APRU and NSW Circular, ACEC will be held on December 7-11th 2020.

Are you a graduate student with research interests in the Circular Economy?

Submit an expression of interest for a poster presentation at Australian Circular Economy Conference.

ACEC 2020 will focus on 'design' through the following themes:

- Circular Economy Education
- Construction – a Circular Economy Opportunity
- Textiles and Fashion in the Circular Economy
- Circular Economy Entrepreneurship
- Energy-Waste Nexus
- Circular Plastics
- Food Waste in the Circular Economy
- Systems Transparency, Data, Digital and Evidence-based Decisions
- Advancing Manufacturing

If selected your poster will be part of an online session as part of the conference. Expressions of interest close November 27th.

A panel of judges will select the top three posters who will also receive awards, prizes to be announced soon.

Eligibility:

- 1) Current or recently graduated Master or PhD student.
- 2) Current Undergraduate students are also welcomed to submit a poster of their final year honours research thesis projects.
- 3) Research presented in a poster must be related to the circular economy within one of the 9 themes highlighted above.
- 4) Students will need to confirm that they have discussed their submission with their thesis supervisor and have obtained supervisor's approval to submit.
- 5) Poster contributions are required to acknowledge all co-authors and contributors of the research displayed in the poster, as well as any funding sources as appropriate.
- 6) Presenters must submit an expression of interest of 100 words or less summarising the work and its relevance to the Circular Economy theme. Please e-mail your expression of interest to Poster Session Coordinator Mr Zachary Cohn at zachary.cohn@sydney.edu.au; with the email subject line: "ACEC2020-Poster Session".