¹ The program is administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates complete studies on over 100 topics, including stocks, bonds, taxes, insurance, retirement planning and estate planning. In addition to passing the CFP certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

² The ChFC program is administered by the American College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania. This designation has the same core curriculum as the CFP® designation, plus two or three additional elective courses that focus on various areas of personal financial planning. In addition to successful completion of an exam on areas of financial planning, including income tax, insurance, investment and estate planning, candidates are required to have a minimum of three (3) years' experience in a financial industry position.

agent, and sells fixed insurance products as an independent insurance agent. She may receive compensation for her activities as a registered representative or insurance agent.

As a registered representative of Geneos, Ms. Rehkop may recommend securities or insurance products offered by Geneos. She may also receive commissions for insurance products sold through Capital Asset Insurance Services. Thus, a conflict of interest exists between the interests of Ms. Rehkop and those of our advisory clients. Our clients are under no obligation to purchase products recommended by Ms. Rehkop. No client is obligated to place securities transactions or purchase insurance through Geneos or to purchase insurance through any other firm represented by Ms. Rehkop.

B. Non-Investment-Related Activities

Ms. Rehkop may also recommend Life/Health and Fixed Insurance products through Scarlet Oak Financial Services.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

As noted above, Ms. Rehkop may receive compensation for her activities as a registered representative or insurance agent.

Ms. Rehkop is eligible to receive incentive awards (including prizes such as trips or bonuses) for recommending certain types of insurance policies or other investment products that she recommends.

While Ms. Rehkop endeavors at all times to put the interest of our clients first as part of our fiduciary duty, the possibility of receiving incentive awards creates a conflict of interest, and may affect her judgment when making recommendations.
