

Jesus is stripped of his garments

John 19:23-24

When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.

Watch the cloth move in the breeze and feel the air on our face.

'He is our clothing. In his love he wraps and holds us. He enfolds us in love and he will never let us go.'

Julian of Norwich

We pray:

Jesus, who was stripped of every last possession, strip our hearts of all the things we cling to that come between our lives and your love. Lay us bare to your calling. Amen.
