Havana: The island nation’s capital is teeming in history. Take a walking tour through Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where you’ll encounter 16th century architectural treasures, like the Cathedral de San Cristóbal. And a trip here wouldn’t be complete without experiencing the vibrant nightlife, that’s why we offer a late-night or overnight stay on every visit here so that after your organized shore excursion, you’ll celebrate the festive culture Cuban style, dancing the night away!

Cienfuegos: The historic city of Cienfuegos is known for its Neo-Classical architecture, and is nicknamed “the Pearl of the South.” Backdropped by the Sierra del Escambray mountain range and facing the Jagua Bay, you’ll find Botanical Gardens, and the Urban Historic Centre of Cienfuegos, considered the best example of 19th century urban planning and a UNESCO Site. And with the late- night calls in this port on select itineraries, you’ll have ample time to see all the sights on your organized shore excursion and enjoy the nightlife.

Santiago de Cuba: This port is known for strong African influences and lively music; it’s no wonder that this is the city where Son, the most popular and influential genre of Cuban music and dance, was born. It’s also the birthplace of the Spanish American Revolution and where rum was first produced. It’s here that you’ll find the UNESCO Site, San Pedro de la Roca Castle, a castle fort perched high above the harbor that was built to protect the inhabitants from pirates.
