Lacombe, Alberta

On October 12, 2019, The Lacombe Police were dispatched to the Lacombe Centre Mall after a break and enter to ones of its businesses. The mall had been entered through the front entrance and a grinder used to cut through the metal bars to gain entry to the business.

The suspects were able to steal several laptops, tablets, hard drives and audio/video receivers and a float containing an undisclosed amount of money. A number of watches were also stolen from a separate display as the suspects exited the mall.

2 suspects were observed by surveillance departing the scene in a white Ford truck. The suspects are described as follows:

Suspect # 1

- Heavier build.
- Blue jacket/hood up.
- Black shoes with white soles.
- Face covered with a mask.

Suspect # 2

- Slim build.
- White Shoes.
- Dark colored pants.
- Camouflaged jacket/hood up
- Black purse hung on body.
- Face covered with a mask – Black with possible white skull/jaw.
