In Melrose a live performance at the Bronx Music Heritage Center was a part of an event honoring a Puerto Rican patron saint. The group Danza Fiesta took center stage, Saturday, and people were dancing as part of the, Fiesta de Santiago. The event is part of the center’s National Endowment for the Arts grant series, Masking the Seasons of the Bronx. It highlights different masked celebrations from Latino communities here in the borough.