Boogie Down Booth Installation

By Robert Wirsing

The newest Boogie Down Booth, a colorful solar powered booth where people can sit, relax and listen to Bronx music was installed on Tuesday, May 17 at Elton Avenue by the O’Neill Triangle. The beloved community structure was created by the Women’s Housing and Economic Development Corporation’s Bronx Music Heritage Center in partnership with NYC Parks and designer Chat Travieso.

Original story published in the Bronx Times