

Bronx Rising! September Event SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2017, 7 – 9PM

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope."

Location Bronx Music Heritage Center
1303 Louis Niñé Boulevard \(Freeman Street\)
South Bronx, New York 10459

Category Theater / Concerts

Contact Name Camonghne Felix

Contact Phone 646.675.4009

Contact Email Camonghne.Felix@berlinrosen.com

Cost Free

Sep 16

The Bronx

Bonx Rising! September Event

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project. The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope."

- Bronx Music Heritage Center Lab - 1303 Louis NiÃ±Ã© Boulevard, South Bronx, NY 10459
- 07:00 PM - 09:00 PM
- Free

https://www.ny1.com/nyc/all-boroughs/events/2017/09/16/bonx_rising_septemberevent.html

The RIVERDALE PRESS

Bronx Rising! September Celebration

Posted August 14, 2017 by jthomey

Bronx Music Heritage Center

1303 Louis Niñé Boulevard

South Bronx, NY 10459

View larger map

EVENT DATE

Saturday, September 16, 2017

EVENT TIME

7:00 PM

COST / DONATION

Free

CONTACT

John Thomey,
[john.thomey@berlinro
sen.com](mailto:john.thomey@berlinro sen.com)

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

<http://riverdalepress.com/stories/bronx-rising-september-celebration,63201>

Bronx Rising! September Celebration

Sat Sep 16, 2017

7:00pm

This Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history.

To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope

Age: All ages welcome

Contact: Camonghne.Felix@berlinrosen.com

Price: Free

Location:

Bronx Music Heritage Center

map

1303 Louis Niñé Boulevard

South Bronx, NY 10459

646.675.4009

<https://momypoppins.com/new-york-city-kids/event/free/bronx-rising-september-celebration>

Concert and Screening of Documentary Seeking Hope

7:00 PM | Saturday Sep 16, 2017

Edit event

PROMOTE EVENT

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band

& The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope."

Price: Free

Bronx Music Heritage Center >
1303 Louis 9 Blvd
Bronx, NY 10458
directions > street view >

GET YOUR FREE EVENT LISTING

Bronx Rising! September Celebration

Saturday

Sep 16, 2017 – 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Bronx Music Heritage Center

1303 Louis Niñé Boulevard

Bronx, NY 10459 Map

More Info

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope."

<http://events.newyork.cbslocal.com/bronx/events/bronx-rising-september-celebration-/E0-001-105686634-0>

Concert and Screening of Documentary Seeking Hope

7:00 PM | Saturday Sep 16, 2017 Edit event

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope."

Price: Free

http://todaysmama.com/calendar/?id=todaysmamanewyork#/event/6625342-concert-and-screening-of-documentary-seeking-hope?radius_miles=50&location=10001-new-york§ions=all&date=2017-09-16

Concert and Screening of Documentary Seeking Hope

7:00 PM | Saturday Sep 16, 2017 Edit event

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope."

Price: Free

http://newyorkevents.co/calendar/#/event/6625342-concert-and-screening-of-documentary-seeking-hope?radius_miles=25&location=10163-new-york§ions=all&date=2017-09-16

SOCIAL IN THE BRONX

Concert and Screening of Documentary Seeking Hope

7:00 PM | Saturday Sep 16, 2017 Edit event

This month's Bronx Rising! event will honor two Jazz legends -- and what better place to celebrate jazz culture than here in the Bronx, where hundreds of jazz's most renowned musicians have come to gather and jam. From legendary jazz venues like Club 845, to the contributions of artists like Maxine Sullivan and Thelonious Monk, the Bronx is alive with the footprints of its rich jazz history. To celebrate, WHEDco's Bronx Music Heritage Center (BMHC) is hosting a screening of Seeking Hope, a documentary about jazz pianist Bertha Hope, directed by bassist and vocalist Mimi Jones, followed by a Q&A with both artists. The event will close with an exciting performance by The Mimi Jones Band & The Black Madonna Project.

The BMHC will host two additional jazz-themed events during the month of September, including a reception on September 9 for a street naming ceremony in honor of jazz / R&B trumpeter Donald Byrd, who passed away in 2013, and a celebration on September 10 to commemorate the street naming in honor of Elmo Hope.”

Price: Free

http://socialinbronx.com/calendar/#/event/6625342-concert-and-screening-of-documentary-seeking-hope?radius_miles=10&location=10456-bronx§ions=all&date=2017-09-16