

Non-Profit Helps Bronx Small Food Businesses

(News 12 screen grab)

News 12 the Bronx reports on WHEDco's Bronx CookSpace, a non-profit organization that helps Bronx small food businesses grow by providing them with kitchen space and guiding them as business owners.

The story says there's a total of four work spaces used for a number of businesses, like caterers and wholesalers.

See the full December 21, 2017 story on NEWS 12 THE BRONX ...

SHARE ON

TwitterFacebookGoogle+LinkedInPin ItEmail

ABOUT thisistheBronX

Launched on May 17, 2017, thisistheBronX.info is the 'everything Bronx' web portal designed for residents of the Bronx and anyone who has interest in the Bronx. This one-stop place for everything Bronx is being pioneered by TV personality, Gary Axelbank. On this interactive site visitors can upload events to appear on the events calendar, post their favorite Bronx photos, pictures of their latest artwork, and get their favorite business, group, or organization a free listing by sending an email to info@thisisthebronx.info.

thisisthebronX also serves as an outlet to Bronx businesses by giving light to large and small businesses to provide a level of exposure that has never been available before.

Every 24-hours, the site provides fresh content with links to Bronx news feeds, a Bronx events calendar, and a range of directories. Access to the latest Bronx information has been made easier with a daily newsletter, thisistheBronX TODAY.

To receive thisistheBronX TODAY, submit your email here: <http://www.thisisthebronx.info/newsletter/>