

TO CELEBRATE THE BLACK MADONNA AND HER MANY MANIFESTATIONS, THE EVENT FEATURED A RECEPTION FOR TANYA TORRES' EXHIBITED WORKS INSPIRED BY MARY MAGDALENE AND A SCREENING OF 'THE VOYAGE OF THE BLACK MADONNA,' A DOCUMENTARY ABOUT THE PILGRIMAGE TO THE SACRED SITE OF THE BLACK MADONNA IN SOUTHERN ITALY

The Routes Of The Black Madonna

Enlarge this image

Photo by Kasey Rodriguez

Mazarte Dance Company, Inc. performed traditional Mexican dances.

By Robert Wirsing

In celebration of Bronx Week, the Bronx Music Heritage Center hosted an opening reception for 'Bronx Rising! The Routes of the Black Madonna' on Saturday, May 19 at 1303 Louis Niñé Boulevard. To celebrate the Black Madonna and her many manifestations, the event featured a reception for Tanya Torres' exhibited works inspired by Mary Magdalene and a screening of 'The Voyage of the Black Madonna,' a documentary about the pilgrimage to the sacred site of the Black Madonna in southern Italy.

Photo by Kasey Rodriguez

Tanya Torres with her favorite painting she made of the Dark Magdalene.

Enlarge this image

Photo by Kasey Rodriguez

One of Tanya Torres' exhibited works featured Egyptian gods and vibrant visuals.

Link: <https://www.bxtimes.com/stories/2018/21/21-a-sbxrising-2018-05-25-bx.html>