

Hawaiian Mission Houses Historic Site and Archives Presents
Commemoration of the Bicentennial of the Mission to Hawai'i

A 30-Day Series of History Theater, Panel Discussions, and Cultural Events

September 29-October 23, 2019

- A dramatic one-person play by Moses Goods
- Hawaiian music performances that outline the development of music throughout the history of Hawai'i
- A portrayal of the life of 'Ōpūkaha'ia, one of the most influential historical figures of Hawai'i

Henry 'Ōpūkaha'ia, the young Hawaiian who inspired the ABCFM mission, is coming back to New England. Performed by Moses Goods, this one-person performance is a dramatic portrayal of the life that has forever tied New England to Hawai'i. For information: 808-447-3914 info@missionhouses.org

September-October 2019

| SUN   | MON   | TUE  | WED  | THU  | FRI                             | SAT                             |
|---|---|--|--|--|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 29 Goshen Cong. Church 10am                   | 30 Yale University 7pm                      | 1 New Haven Museum 5:30pm                      | 2 Yale University Outdoor 1pm                  | 3 Phillips Andover, 6:30pm Discussion Series   | 4 Phillips Academy Andover, 6pm | 5 Old Sturbridge Village 6:30pm |
| 6 Cornwall Hist Soc 3pm                       | 7 Williams College 7:30pm Discussion Series | 8 Am Antiquarian Society 7pm Discussion Series | 9 Congregational Library 3pm Discussion Series | 10 Pequot Museum Symposium                     | 11 Maine Historical Society     | 12 UCC Torrington 7pm           |
| 13 Wellesley Hills Church 11:30am             | 14 Guilford Cong. Church 7pm                | 15 Museum of the Bible Washington DC 11am      | 16 DAR Washington DC 6:30pm                    | 17 Dumbarton House Washington DC Private Event | 18 Mystic Seaport Museum 1:30pm | 19 Salem, CT Private Event      |
| 20 Park Street Church Services, 8:30 11 & 4pm | 21  | 22   | 23 Park Street Church, Boston 6:00pm           | 24   | 25                              | 26                              |

