- E. All children must be under parental guidance when near ponds, streams or the river.
- F. Residents, staff and all other persons partaking of open space privileges granted to Proprietary members disregard the Proprietary Common Area Rules at their own risk, with no liability incurred on the part of the Proprietary for any personal harm or bodily injury resulting from such person's own negligence.

III. ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS GOVERNING COMMON AREAS

- A. The following enforcement actions shall be undertaken in the event the rules for the use of the common area adopted herein should be violated:

- 1. Damage to Common Areas

- Any lot owner(s) responsible for violation of the rules governing the common area shall be fully liable for all damages incurred to the common grounds as a result of such action. The Proprietary staff shall undertake the necessary restorative action(s) to the affected common area and bill the record lot owner accordingly. If the owner refuses to remunerate the Proprietary for the cost of the damages, legal action shall be taken.

2. Animal Control

The Board of Directors gives its approval to the Animal Warden of Loudoun County, Virginia, to enforce the Loudoun County Leash Laws (a copy of which is attached hereto), and other related animal control laws on the private property of the Proprietary. The appropriate signage will be posted at the major entryway and Loudoun County Animal Warden's Office duly notified of all Board actions contained herein.

- B. Any resident witnessing a violation of the above rules is urged to contact the Proprietary office or call the appropriate County agency immediately. The common lands and recreational amenities are an essential component of CountrySide's environment and a valuable economic and aesthetic resource, both present and future.
