Summer Splish, Splash into National SEL Day Dallas Afterschool is facilitating a focused workshops on March 11, 2022 #SELday: Creating a SEL Culture Now more than ever, organizations are looking for ways to build meaningful connections through social and emotional learning. For teachers and afterschool professionals, this interactive one-day workshop is a must-no more guesswork about how to engage students and help them thrive.

Brain-based strategies for building relationships, making connections, and understanding the teen mind will be the focus of this training. Participants will work together on hands-on activities that will provide tools and techniques for implementing social-emotional learning initiatives in the classroom.

The world of SEL shares, directly, and inclusivity has been around for quite some time with a focus on improving the lives of students. Dallas Afterschool is proud to announce a new program designed to meet the needs of students through a lens of Social Emotional Learning (SEL).

The Dallas Afterschool Spring Training Calendar is designed to meet the needs of afterschool professionals and educators, providing opportunities for both learning and networking. Whether you are new to the field or a seasoned professional, there is something for everyone in this diverse range of topics.

This year’s training calendar is divided into three main strands: Social Emotional Learning, Project Based Learning, and Building Engagement. Each strand will feature a variety of workshops and sessions designed to meet the needs of professionals and educators across the field.

Social Emotional Learning will focus on the development of Social Emotional Learning skills and strategies for educators, as well as the importance of creating a SEL-based culture within afterschool programs. Project Based Learning will showcase opportunities for hands-on learning and experiential education, with a focus on project-based learning approaches. Building Engagement will feature strategies for increasing engagement and participation in afterschool programs, with a focus on creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for all students.

The Dallas Afterschool Spring Training Calendar is a valuable resource for afterschool professionals and educators, offering a range of workshops and sessions designed to meet the needs of the field. Whether you are new to the field or a seasoned professional, there is something for everyone in this diverse range of topics.
