It may be a nuisance, but you can learn to "block it out"... until it gets louder! Then you have to find a way to make it subside.

A 10 year old, not prepped and live... I was so proud of her. My daughter and her honesty, and her great self promotion. Why did it decrease in adulthood?? There is a reason. But in the interim, I loved the press she got... and I was her co-creator. A dream I had had of this campaign when I was 24. :) I even submitted it to the Mayor at the time... Egleton??? Can't remember really anymore... :) Hugs and here is to BRANDING YOU!
