Harry Hustle “Todd Ezzell” Award – This award is given to the person who has shown great commitment to the club and goes above and beyond for the betterment of the club and its members. You will see this person volunteering and working hard at work projects, events and meetings. This award was named after Todd Ezzell after he earned the award several years and continues to set the bar high for all future members. The winner is presented an engraved beer mug.

NOMINEE: _____

Joe Mitchell Achievement Award -This award is bestowed on no more than one recipient each year by the board based on three criteria; commitment to the club, commitment to conservation and commitment to education. A recipient's commitment to the club is evidenced by service to the club as an officer or board member, committee chairperson, recruiting new members and/or extensive involvement in club activities. A recipient's commitment to conservation is evidenced by involvement in local or regional conservation projects as a sponsor, manager or volunteer and/or involvement in local or regional legislative or nonprofit efforts to promote conservation. A recipient's commitment to education is evidenced by involvement in the club's fly tying educational programs and other club training and outreach activities and by showing a willingness to assist other members in improving their fishing skills both on and off the water. In short, recipients demonstrate over many years the core qualities that make the club better, protect and enhance the local fishery and enrich the fly fishing experience for all. Any member in good standing may nominate another member in good standing for the award. The award is determined by a majority of the board members. Board members are ineligible for this award until their term is completed.

Nominee: _____

Oakie Drifter – The winner of the Oakie Drifter award has proved to the SJRVFF members in good standing his or her ability to show their more creative, comical and outlandish side to fly fishing. Past recipients have shown their ability to break several rods on one day or unknowingly performed breaking-and-entering into cabins similar to where other club members are staying. They have shown the ability to forget dates when purchasing license in Federal Parks, thus being without proper paperwork when the game warden arrives. They have also displayed the talent of hooking themselves in the neck with salmon flies or forgotten to put in the drain plug on their McKenzie drift boat. Get the idea? So let's hear your best story of your fishing buddy - remember it is just a fishing club, take and give it in the best humor. A humorous award fitting the winner is presented.

NOMINEE: _____

Life Time Membership – This is the highest honor given by SJRVFF. This award is given to those very few members who have made a significant contribution to the improvement of SJRVFF. This award is not given each year and is only given to a member who has shown a significant body of work and a long term commitment to the club. The club will present the winner a gold dry fly Wheatley Dry Fly Box engraved with their name and a reprieve from dues for the rest of their life.
