sell out quickly so now is the time!

Chris Velan is a singer-songwriter and producer from Montreal. With a mixed bag of musical influences and genres, Velan has toured throughout North America at The Montreal Jazz Festival, Sundance Festival, Osheaga and more. His seventh album, "Amateur Hour" will be released on September 14 and is packed with personal insight, conflict, and resolve with both ballads and catchy lyrics that will find you humming along. A performer of this calibre is a rare find in a small local Eastern Townships location and the Beat & Betterave has done it again in bringing another gem of a performer to the townships.

The café is located at: 41 Rue Principale, Frelighsburg and with this opportunity you can discover two things, a talented performer and a location that you will surely return to time and time again.

Visit the Beat & Betterave website or their Facebook page to view some of the other talented artists who will be performing in the weeks to come. The list is impressive. Check out Chris Velan's new CD by visiting: <https://chrisvelan.com/>
