

Le Shana Tova Tikatevu

לשנה טובה תכתבו

May you be inscribed for a good year!

During the Days of Awe between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, Jews around the world exchange this optimistic greeting. This card was sent to you to add sweetness and joy to your new year. Many women's and children's organizations will benefit from the proceeds of this donation made on your behalf.

At Rosh Hashanah it has been a special tradition to dip challah or apple slices in honey and recite these words: "May the New Year bring a harvest rich and sweet in all the good things of life"

National Council of Jewish Women South Cook Section hopes this year will bring us together in peace, love, and laughter.

May your year be rich and sweet,

Shana Tova U'metukah
