IV. SAIL IN CAFÉ & CONVENIENCE STORE

   Ms. Johnson announced that the Sail in Café & Convenience Store continues to not sustain itself in spite of our best efforts in advertising, promotion, specials, and community involvement. Ms. Farr presented a spread sheet detailing the cost and revenue of the Café over the years. Ms. Johnson stated that she wanted to make the board aware that we would be making an official recommendation to close the Sail in Café & Convenience Store at the next board meeting. Currently efforts are being made to reinvent the Galley and efforts will be made in that area to incorporate some of the Café’s learning opportunities into our Galley program.

   Ms. Farr stated that CARF is scheduled to be at St. Clair County Community Mental Health beginning March 3, 2020 for the on-site accreditation visit and questioned if we need to accredit the
