Music Over Miles is a 501c3 not for profit charity who provides programs and services free of charge to participating schools and camps. Programs, presenters, and content will vary based on locations and all programs are completed contingent on adequate funding.

2017-2019 Music Over Miles National Spokesperson is Andrew Salgado www.AndrewSalgado.net

Faculty may include other music industry representatives, managers, other performers, Board & Advisory members, media and invited guests of Music Over Miles, as well donors/sponsors. Each program is individualized and participative with students at each school. Therefore, program format is general only, and segments remain flexible at each individual organization based on student needs.
