

What Others Are Saying About Debbie

"No one on the face of the earth outshines Debbie's affection for the Lord. For years I've observed her extraordinary love affair with Jesus Christ. Two words describe Debbie: authentic and passionate about God."

Pam Kanaly, Arise Ministries, Edmond, Oklahoma

"We were blessed to have Debbie speak at our Women's Leadership Appreciation Dinner. She brought a message from the Lord that was both affirming and inspiring. Debbie has a gift for presenting the truth of God's Word with a joyful spirit and great wisdom."

Cheryl Green, UpWords with Max Lucado & Women's Min, San Antonio, TX

I can't tell you how great the retreat was and how many good comments I heard from the ladies today. You were just what we needed to hear and the words you shared were perfect. I loved what you had to say about complacency, service, etc. I was sitting in church today praying the names of God and feeling such an outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

You are truly delightful and this retreat was such a special time of learning. I felt like you were so yielded to what God told you to impart to us. It was a very special time for all who were there. You are truly God's messenger and I love the message you bring!!

Debbie Taylor Williams was the greatest choice as a keynote speaker for our women's retreat. We so enjoyed her great communication, her humor, but mostly her spirit that was so energized by our heavenly Father. She came and connected with each person she interacted with, unlike some speakers who come, do their responsibility, and leave. Not Debbie. She came with all her gifts and abilities ready to be used by God both on and off the podium. Our church is richer and wiser because of her time here.

Debbie Williams is a woman whom God has wonderfully gifted in sharing His Word. She teaches in parables and ways that bring God's Word to life for others. Ladies under her teaching learn in such a way that they are challenged in their walk with the Lord while being greatly encouraged and blessed all at the same time. Long after retreats are over where she has spoken, ladies continue to talk about the truths they learned under her teaching, which are very applicable to the daily lives of women in all walks of life.

After the most recent retreat where Debbie spoke, many ladies have shared the desire to have her come for a city-wide women's event so all their friends and women of the city can receive the blessing of God's Word through her teaching. Her books and writings continue to encourage women in their Bible study time and in their lives after returning home from retreats.

It is refreshing and inspiring to see how God is using Debbie for His purposes in sharing His word with so many women and the amazing result is that He receives all the glory. I am very thankful to know Debbie Williams, a gifted and godly woman whom I trust to share God's love and Word with the women of my church in a way that blesses and encourages them in their walk with the Lord. I encourage everyone to invite her to come and share God's love and teaching with women.

I wanted you to know that once again your words and exhortations have changed my life! You always wake me up as to how I've slipped into "worldly" thinking instead of living for God. Thank you for reminding me again that I was bought at a great price, therefore, I am not my own, but His! Those precious hours of teaching, praise, worship and fellowship are very dear to me and I pray the sweet fragrance of them will stay in my heart until the next time we gather. God Bless!
