

ArtBridge Is Calling all Street Artists

BY PETER DAVIS

Calling all artists! ArtBridge, a non-profit organization founded by artist/designer Rodney Durso in 2008, transforms construction scaffolding and sidewalk sheds into temporary art exhibitions. ArtBridge is now accepting applications for their next street art show. Applicants have until July 1st at 11:59pm to submit work in any medium (painting, photography, collage, digital art etc). The clock is ticking so move fast. Just think: you could become the next Banksy and not have to hide your identity or risk getting arrested for creating street art.
