Dear Steve and Georgia, and Lifepoint Church

U.S. Missions Candidate Orientation

Springfield, MO. U.S. Missions held it's Candidate Orientation in September, about 20 missionaries attended from several departments. Chi Alpha had nine new candidate missionaries. Several missionaries are already fully funded, I'll be working with the others. This meal was at the hotel during the training week.

New Missionaries I'm Working With:

Mac and Mindi Holderfield - University of Maine (to my left, next to me and across)

Patrick and Bethany Hundl - University of South Carolina (across from me to the right)

Rachel Yokers - University of Wisconsin (across, on right, third from the end)

Michael and Nicole Murray - Northern Michigan University (across, on right, at the end)

I greatly enjoy this week to get to know the missionaries personally as well as provide training. Then when we return to our home towns, I'll typically meet with them once every other week on a SKYPE video conference call, (usually 40-60 minutes) to provide coaching, discipleship and pastoral ministry for about a year, until they become fully funded.

Please pray that my ministry with these missionaries will be effective and they'll quickly launch strong to reach university students for Christ!

National XA Leaders Gathering

Last week, the new national director E.Scott Martin (on my left) met with all of the national leadership team (about 20) in Springfield, MO for the first time to share his vision. We discussed strategy and ministry positions. This propelled our movement forward as it solidified our direction and team coordination.

Support Coaching and Training Specialist

My ministry assignment/responsibilities have recently expanded. Previously I directed support raising coaching. Now I'm leading the areas of coaching and support raising training for national XA. Chi Alpha has 9 training sites and 16 trainers that I'll now be working with across the U.S. Your support now impacts even more missionary leaders!

Youngwoo Kwak, Jordan, Erin and Gregg

This was our "goodbye" dinner, as we ate a special meal with our good friend Youngwoo. We met Youngwoo 4 years ago when he came to live with us (as his host family) while studying English. He lived with us for about a year and half, then went to Cranbrook Art Institute in Bloomfield Hills, MI for a masters degree in ceramics. He recently lived with us again during the summer before going back to Korea in September.

We had the wonderful opportunity to share our lives, western culture and Jesus with him. And the exciting thing is that Youngwoo received Christ and experienced an inner transformation by the Holy Spirit! He's now back in Korea and attending church.

Youngwoo's art work display at Cranbrook.

Youngwoo was the top student in his class and voted best artwork among his peers. The other students in his class marveled at Youngwoo's works as none of them had the skill to produce works of this size and style. The piece he is standing behind was adopted into the Cranbrook Art Institute's own art collection.

Saturday (10/10/2015)

I spoke in Clair, MI at Clare Assembly Men's Ministry. We had a great time of sharing and ministry. Here's a picture of the fall colors on US 10 heading back to Grand Rapids.

Prayer:

We are in a new season of support raising. We've recently had a major donor unable to continue their support. This is a big challenge for us.

Please pray with us that the Lord would touch hearts and open doors so that we can quickly return to full funding.

Please also pray for Erin as she's injured a ligament in her knee. And please pray for me for healing regarding chronic back pain.

We serve a BIG GOD!

We love you and THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU...for your prayer and financial support.

Yours for the souls of collegians,
Gregg & Erin
