

Information Technology

From tearing down computers for repair to providing technical support for users in organizations small and large, students gain the skills needed to get high demand jobs.

Two year commitment (Junior/Senior year)

At the completion of the program students earn:

- Two Certifications (CompTIA A+ Certification, CompTIA Network + Certification)
- Ivy Tech Technical Certificate (TC)
- Total of 30 college credit hours

Coursework in Year 1

- INFM 109 Informatics Fundamentals
- ITSP 135 Hardware/Software Support
- ITSP 136 CompTIA A+ Certification
- SDEV 120 Computing Logic
- NETI 105 Network Fundamentals
- IVYT 115 Student Success in Computing & Informatics

Coursework in Year 2

- CSIA 105 Intro to Cyber Security/Information Assurance
- ITSP 165 Frontline IT Customer Service
- SVAD 111 Linux & Virtualization Technologies
- SVAD 121 Enterprise Computing
- ENGL 111* English Composition

* Course is not included in cohort times

Students get hands-on experience diagnosing, troubleshooting, and repairing computer related equipment and systems. IT support is an excellent foundation for multiple career pathways.

Information Technology Support graduates will need to fill 3,840 available job openings by 2024. The average salary in Indiana is $74,488 with an Associate Degree and $48,800 with a Certificate.

