

Gathering Gang Intelligence in a Correctional Setting

Date: January 26th, 2021

Time: 0900-1200 PST

Format: Online-Zoom

The influence of gangs in Canada's Correctional Institutions are as strong as ever. Whether the situation is a gang-on-gang conflict or a staff member or contractor being groomed or persuaded by gang members and their associates to do their bidding. Gathering intelligence is your first defence.

Topics

History behind BC gangs,

current gang landscape,

key organized crime groups and their conflicts, organized crime businesses and their influences locally, nationally and abroad, and intelligence gathering, interviewing techniques, and best practices related to the intake and monitoring of institutionalized criminals and organized crime groups within the correctional system.

There will be an opportunity for questions after each presentation.

Who is this presentation for?

All Provincial and Federal Correctional Managers and Intelligence Officers

Presenters

Dr. Kieron McConnell.

Dr McConnell has been a frontline officer with the Vancouver Police Department for more than 30 years with the last 15 focussing on gang prevention, suppression and intervention.

Detective Raj Jaswal

Detective Constable Jaswal has been a Police Officer with the Vancouver Police Department for more the 13 years.

He has spent the past decade investigating and gathering intelligence on the various gangs in our communities.

Fee: $200 per person

No private or personal emails will be accepted for registration.

Contact info@Letassociation.com if there are any questions

Register at: LETAssociation.com