1. Complaints must be in writing and contain the following information:
   a. Name, address, telephone number (or email) of the complainant.
   b. The date or dates on which the alleged discriminatory event or events occurred.
   c. The nature of the discrimination that led the complainant to feel discrimination was a factor.
   d. Complainant’s signature and date.

2. If the Complainant is unable to write a complaint, OCR staff will assist the complainant.

3. OCR will begin an investigation within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of a complaint.

4. OCR will contact the complainant in writing no later than thirty (30) working days after receipt of complaint for additional information, if needed.

5. OCR will complete the investigation within ninety (90) working days of receipt of the complaint.

6. OCR will prepare a written investigation report including a summary description of the incident, findings and recommended corrective action.

7. A closing letter will be provided to the complainant providing five (5) working days from receipt of the closing letter to appeal. If neither party appeals, OCR’s decision is final.

Complaints may also be filed directly with the appropriate federal agency.
