Student Learning Goals

As a result of their education, Mediapolis Community School students will be...

- Effective communicators who are able to listen, speak, read, and write to clearly exchange ideas for various purposes.
- Good problem solvers who are able to apply mathematical, analytical, and logical reasoning to make appropriate decisions.
- Responsible citizens who are able to work cooperatively, creatively, and constructively to face the world's challenges.
- Adaptable technology users who are able to access, integrate, and create information in a variety of contexts.
- Lifelong learners who balance intellectual, artistic, and physical pursuits to maintain healthy living
